Lafayette Transit and Para-transit Service to provide complementary rides on Black Friday, Small Business Saturday

Lafayette, LA – Lafayette Transit Service announced today that it will provide complementary transit service to all riders for both daytime fixed-route and Night Owl Service on Black Friday (November 2) and Small Business Saturday (November 25). Acadiana Transit, who provides Para-transit service, will also provide complementary service those two days.

Lafayette Consolidated Government's Department of Public Works, Transit Division also announced today that due to the official holiday of Thanksgiving Lafayette Transit System, including Daytime, Night Owl, and Para-transit, will not provide services on Thursday, November 23, 2017. Due to the official holiday of Acadian Day on Friday, November 24, 2017, LTS bus services, including Daytime, Night Owl, and Para-transit will run the Saturday schedule and offices will be closed.
